

CONTACT

(before the event)

Faculty of Divinity

outreach@divinity.cam.ac.uk

(from 18—21 April)

St John's College

01223 338600

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE

THE BOOK AND THE SWORD

WORKSHOP 3:

THE BIBLE IN THE LEGACY
AND MEMORY OF THE GREAT WAR

18-21 APRIL 2017

LOCATION

St John's College, Cambridge,
CB2 1TP

[www.joh.cam.ac.uk/maps-
directions](http://www.joh.cam.ac.uk/maps-directions)

ORGANISATION

Dr. Andrew Mein

Dr. Nathan MacDonald

PROGRAMME

Tuesday 18th April

- 14:00 + Check in (Westminster, Jesus, St John's)
- 17:30 Registration (St John's)
- 18:00 Welcome Drinks
- 18:30 Dinner in St John's College Buttery
- 20:00 David Shepherd (Dublin) – 'Blessed are the Peacemakers': the Deployment of Jesus in American and German Cinema during and after WWI.

Wednesday 19th April

- 09:15 Ronald E. Clements (London) – A Prophet in Wartime: Reading Jeremiah in 1917
- 10:00 Hilary Marlow (Cambridge) – The Anguish of the Earth: Nature and Warfare in the Bible and WWI texts
- 10:45 Tea and coffee
- 11:15 James Crossley (St Mary's University College) – Rudolf Rocker, Yiddish Anarchism and the Fate of the radical Bible: The Impact of World War 1

- 12:00 Valérie Nicolet (Paris) – WWI read as Salvation History: How France fits in God's Plan at the close of WWI
- 12:45 Sandwich lunch
- 14:30 Tim Langille (Arizona) – Remembering the Maccabees: Jewish Soldiers, the Bible, and Maccabean Heroism During WWI
- 15:15 Paul Dafydd Jones (Charlottesville, VA) – 'This Dark Road': Karl Barth's Sermons at the Outset of the Great War
- 16:00 Tea and coffee
- 16:30 Susannah Heschel (Dartmouth) – The Biblical Prophets in First World War German Scholarship
- 17:15 Paul Kurtz and Suzanne Marchand (Louisiana State/Göttingen) – Rudolf Otto, the Great War, and the Death of Theological Historicism
- 19:00 Dinner at Strada, a local restaurant

Thursday 20th April

- 09:15 Alana Vincent (Chester) – Ecclesiasticus, War Graves, and the 'Secularization' of British Values
- 10:00 Tom Bromwell (York) – Build A New World: Realising the Millennium of Stanley Spencer's Resurrection paintings

- 10:45 Tea and coffee
- 11:15 Jan Willem van Henten (Amsterdam) – Commemorating Soldiers fallen in World War 1 as Martyrs
- 12:00 Krastu Banev (Durham) – The Biblical Theology of War in Eastern Orthodoxy during the Balkan Wars and WWI
- 12:45 Sandwich lunch
- 13:45 Outing to Westminster College and Swaffham Prior
- 16:30 Tea and coffee at St John's
- 17:00 Ian Randall (Cambridge) – The Bible and the Fellowship of Reconciliation
- 17:45 Daniel Smith-Christopher (Loyola Marymount University, LA) – Weimar Pacifist Thought: The Bible Read Red
- 19:30 Closing Dinner at St John's

Friday 21st April

- 09:15 Plenary discussion
- 10:45 Tea and coffee
- 11:15 Advisory board meeting